participation statement from UK Governing Body, 'British Mountaineering Council':

"The British Mountaineering Council recognises that climbing and mountaineering are activities with a danger of personal injury or death. Participants in these activities should be aware of and accept these risks and be responsible for their own actions and involvement."

"I, the parent/guardian, have read and understood the above participation statement and agree to the Terms & Conditions of Use for Craggy Island (printed on reverse) and consent to the above named child/children climbing supervised at the centre. I have ensured that my child/children understand that when participating in climbing and bouldering activities, any instructions given by Craggy Island staff and instructors must be adhered to at all times. I undertake to inform staff of any changes in the child's/children's health and any medical treatment received."
