participation statement from UK Governing Body, 'British Mountaineering Council':

"The British Mountaineering Council recognises that climbing and mountaineering are activities with a danger of personal injury or death. Participants in these activities should be aware of and accept these risks and be responsible for their own actions and involvement."

"I, the person responsible for the group, have read and understood the above participation statement and agree to the Terms & Conditions of Use for Craggy Island (printed on reverse) and consent to the above named child/children climbing supervised at the centre. I have ensured that the above named child/children understand that when participating in climbing and bouldering activities, any instructions given by Craggy Island staff and instructors must be adhered to at all times. I undertake to inform staff of any changes in the child's/children's health and any medical treatment received."
